

"We believe these truths to be self-evident..."

"There's a reason why in New York Harbor we have the Statue of Liberty, not the Statue of Equality."

Charles Krauthammer

"A reporter once asked me why I didn't talk a lot about race. I said because I'm a neurosurgeon...You see, when I take them to the operating room and cut the scalp and take off the bone slab, I'm operating on the thing that makes that person who they are. The cover doesn't make them who they are. When are we going to understand that?"

Dr. Ben Carson

"I have wondered at times what the Ten Commandments would have looked like if Moses had run them through the U.S. Congress."

Ronald Reagan

“What the honorable [Parliament] member is saying is that he would rather that the poor were poorer, provided that the rich were less rich. So long as the gap is smaller, they would rather have the poor poorer. You do not create wealth and opportunity that way.”

Margaret Thatcher

"We must reject the idea that every time a law's broken, society is guilty rather than the lawbreaker. It is time to restore the American precept that each individual is accountable for his actions." ~ Ronald Reagan

"Patriotism is easy to understand in America: it means looking out for yourself by looking out for your country."

Calvin Coolidge

"Our children need strong families raising them with sturdy virtues, not to be smothered in the cold arms of the state."

Margaret Thatcher

*"You can't be for big government,
big taxes and
big bureaucracy
and still be for the little guy."*

Ronald Reagan

"Let's say somebody were [in the White House] and they wanted to destroy this nation. I would create division among the people, encourage a culture of ridicule for basic morality and the principles that made and sustained the country, undermine the financial stability of the nation, and weaken and destroy the military. It appears coincidentally that those are the very things that are happening right now."
